

WAIVER

The Anglican Diocese of the Great Lakes commends your desire and willingness to discern how best to serve the Kingdom of God. This process is a journey that requires sacrifice, prayer, a willingness to accept counsel from others, and a willingness to serve God however he leads you. This process is just that, it's a journey of discernment.

By signing below you understand that by submitting the application, application fees, and investing in materials required for your process, ( i.e. educational materials, physical examines, background check fees, and any fees associated with the process), does not guarantee that you will be accepted as a candidate for ordination in the Anglican Diocese of the Great Lakes.

The Anglican Diocese of the Great Lakes, its bishop, and members of the Vocations Committee reserve the right to refuse applicants based on but not limited to: Criminal Backgrounds, Physical or Mental Defect, Questionable Moral Character, Lack of skills or ability to perform the position, no available/or overabundance of positions, and others within reasons.

In the event your application is denied, you understand that you will not be refunded any costs associated with this process (i.e., background check fees, physical examines, and educational materials and other fees associated with the process).

I understand that by submitting the application, fees and materials required does not guarantee my acceptance as a candidate for ordination in the Anglican Diocese of the Great Lakes.
